Powers of the Zoning Board of Appeals

Pursuant to Section 1605 of the 2000 City of Buford Zoning Ordinance, such variances from the terms of the Zoning Ordinance as will not be contrary to the public interest where, owing to special conditions, a literal enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance will, in an individual case, result in unnecessary hardship, so that the spirit of the Zoning Ordinance shall be observed, public safety and welfare secured and substantial justice done. Such variances may be granted in such individual cases of unnecessary hardship upon finding by the Zoning Board of Appeals that:

(A) There are extraordinary and exceptional conditions pertaining to the particular property in question of its size, shape or topography:

(B) The application of the Ordinance to this particular piece of property would create an unnecessary hardship:

(C) Such conditions are peculiar to the particular piece of property involved:

(D) Such conditions are not the result of any actions of the property owner:

(E) Relief, if granted, would not cause substantial detriment to the public good nor impair the purposes or intent of this Ordinance:

(F) No variance may be granted for a use of land or building or structure that is prohibited by this Ordinance.
