1.6 Hours of operation.

No massage therapist shall engage in such business or profession except between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m.; nor shall any operator of a massage establishment or business operate the same except within and between those hours. Violations of this section shall be considered under this code as an offense and persons found guilty of such violations shall be punishable within the general limits of punishments as provided by the Code of Ordinances of the City of Buford.

1.7 Exemptions.

This article shall not apply to the following individuals while engaged in the personal performance of the duties of their respective profession:

(a) Physicians, surgeons, chiropractors, osteopaths, and physical therapists who are duly licensed to practice their respective profession in the state.

(b) Nurses who are registered under the laws of the state.

(c) Barbers and beauticians who are duly licensed under laws of this state, except that this exemption shall apply solely to the massaging of the neck, face, scalp, and hair of the customer or client for cosmetic or beautifying purposes.

(d) Physical therapists licensed under the laws of the State of Georgia.

1.8 Posting of occupation tax certificate; transfer of certificate, expiration and renewal.

(a) Every person obtaining occupational tax certificate under this chapter shall display such certificate in a prominent place.

(b) No occupational tax certificate shall be transferable or assignable from person to person or from location to location.

(c) Therapist Licenses issued by the State of Georgia shall be recognized by the City as satisfying the requirements of Section 1.3(g) of this ordinance .Any establishment that has previously failed to complete the subject application set forth in § 1.3 shall do so and any establishment that previously completed such application shall update any new information.

1.9 Regulatory Fee.

An annual regulatory fee of $250 shall be paid at the time of issuance of an occupational tax certificate by each massage establishment. This fee is in addition to the occupational tax fee. If less than six (6) months remain in the tax year, the fee shall be $125.

1.10 Revocation or suspension of occupational tax certificate.

An occupational tax certificate granted hereunder shall be subject to revocation. Whenever, in the opinion of the City Manager, there is cause to revoke this certificate, a written notice of intention to revoke the certificate shall be furnished to the holder thereof. A hearing will be scheduled wherein the applicant may present his/her case before the City Manager. After the hearing, the City Manager may revoke this certificate if, in his/her discretion, revocation is in the best interest of the health, safety, and welfare of the city. The aggrieved party may appeal such order to the Zoning Board of Appeals of the City of Buford as further set forth in the City of Buford Zoning Ordinance.

(a) The regulatory fee certificate of massage establishment may be revoked upon one or more of the following grounds (but is not limited to such grounds):

- (1) Failure of the applicant to maintain initial qualification for obtaining the license;
- (2) The applicant is guilty of employing any person who is not a licensed massage therapist and allowing or permitting such person to administer massage in said establishment;
- (3) The premises in which the massage establishment is located are in violation of any of the federal, state, county, or municipal laws designed for the health, protection and safety of the occupants;
- (4) The premises are in violation of the building codes;
- (5) The applicant or therapist is guilty of fraud in the practice of massage, or fraud or deceit in obtaining a regulatory fee certificate to practice massage therapy;
- (6) The applicant or therapist is engaged in the practice of massage therapy under a false or assumed name, or is impersonating another practitioner of a like or different name;
- (7) The applicant or therapist is addicted to the habitual use of intoxicating liquors, narcotics, or stimulants to such an extent as to incapacitate such person to the extent that he is unable to perform his or her duties;
- (8) The applicant or therapist is guilty of fraudulent, false, misleading, or deceptive advertising or practices;
- (9) The original application, or renewal thereof, contains materially false information; or the applicant has deliberately sought to falsify information contained therein;
- (10) The applicant or any of his employees or agents has been convicted or has pled guilty or nolo contendere to a felony or to a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or to any charge of a lascivious nature;
- (11) Failure of the applicant to actively supervise or monitor the conduct of the employees, customers, and others on the premises in order to protect the health, safety, and well-being of the general public and the customers;
- (12) The applicant or his employees have allowed to occur or have engaged in a violation of any part of this article;

(b) A massage establishment operator who has his or her or its occupation tax certificate revoked shall be disqualified from reapplying for such a certificate for twelve (12) months immediately following revocation.

1.11 Responsibility of owner or operator.

It shall be the responsibility of the owner or operator of any service described herein as “massage” to insure that each person employed as a masseuse shall have in his or her possession a valid license issued by the State of Georgia.

1.12 Record of treatment to be kept.

(a) It shall be the duty of any person granted a license under this article to maintain correct and accurate records of the names and addresses of the persons receiving treatment, the type of accurate records of the names and addresses of the persons receiving treatment, the type of treatment administered, and the name of the person administering this treatment. These records shall be subject to inspection any time by the City of Buford Code Enforcement Office. Records shall be kept for a minimum of three years.

(b) No massage therapy shall be preformed by any massage practitioner in the home of any client or in any place except for the pace of business of a licensee hereunder, unless a written memorandum is first made in a log or record dept at the place of business for the purpose of recording consecutively the date, time of treatment, place of treatment, name and address of person to receive treatment, type of treatment to be received, name of person to render treatment, time the practitioner leaves to render treatment, and the fee charged. The practitioner shall record the time each treatment was completed immediately upon his return to the place of business.

1.13 Compliance.

It is unlawful and a misdemeanor for any person or firm to engage in, conduct or carry on within the city, any business as a massage establishment or to act as a massage technician without first obtaining and possessing a valid permit issued pursuant to this chapter, or without complying with all regulations contained in this chapter.
